CAD/CAM, CNC PROGRAMMING

Delta College

What They Do - CAD/CAM Programmers
- Use CAD/CAM software to produce tool paths to manufacturer 2D and 3D modeled parts.

What They Do - CNC Programmers/Operators
- Program and operate computer-driven machinery such as lathes, mills, lasers and other machines to shape materials to precise dimensions
- Machine parts to specifications found on engineering blueprints
- Build molds, dies tools and jigs to mass produce quality parts
- Make the things we use every day

What They Earn*
$46,567 (CAD/CAM)
$36,854 (CNC Programmers/Operators)

Regional Employment Outlook
50+ annual job openings (CAD/CAM)
1,000+ annual job openings (CNC)

CAD/CAM program

CNC program

EXPLORE YOUR FUTURE IN CAD/CAM OR CNC
delta.edu/programs

*Median Annual Salary. For more salary information visit delta.emsicc.com